The screenshot shows the Microsoft Azure Education Hub landing page. At the top, there is a blue navigation bar with the Microsoft Azure logo on the left, a search bar in the center, and utility icons on the right. Below the navigation bar, the breadcrumb "Home > Education" is visible. The main header area features the "Education | Get started" title with a blue 'X' icon and a star icon. A left-hand navigation menu is present, with "Get started" highlighted. The main content area is titled "Welcome to the Azure Education Hub!" and includes a sub-header: "Whether you're a student getting started, an educator teaching advanced workloads, or just interest in building your cloud skills, we've got the development resources you need". Below this, there are three featured cards, each with an icon, a title, a description, and a call-to-action button.

The screenshot shows the Microsoft Azure Education Overview page. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Overview (highlighted with a red box and arrow), Get started, Learning resources (Roles, Software, Learning, Templates), My account (Profile), and Need help? (Support). The main content area features a header with the Microsoft Azure logo and a search bar. Below the header, there is a navigation breadcrumb for Education | Overview. The main heading reads "Explore the capabilities of the cloud with Azure." followed by a sub-heading "Easily set up your personal website, unlock the possibilities of AI or securely store your data in the cloud!". A light blue banner contains an information icon and the text "Click here to complete your student profile". The "Azure credits" section is highlighted with a red box and arrow, showing a "Student offer: $100" and "$100 unused credit expires on August 11, 2022". A progress bar below this text shows 0 out of $100. At the bottom of this section, it says "To view usage details, visit www.microsoftazuresponsorships.com".
